Volume XXXIII.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO, NOVEMBER 21, 1867.

ROBINSON & BAILEY. Wholesale Grocers.

LOWER SIDE Public Square,

Gallipolis, Ohio. Jan. 1, 1867. CHUICE FAMILY FLOUR

Constantly on Hand. FLOUR-all grades, in quantities to suit purchasers. Also, Buck-wheat Flour, Corn-meal, &c. D. S. FORD.

C. J. MENAGER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW GALLIPOLIS, O. PROSECUTES Pension and Bounty Money Claims with diligence, promptness, and fidelity.
Office, west side of the Public Square.
Nev. 25, 1864.

1867.

Spring Trade!

JUST ! ! ! RECEIVED !! A LARGE SUPPLY OF GROCERIES, which we are selling Cheap for Cash.

D. S. FORD.

Feb 14, 1867

JONATHAN HAMILTON, FORWARDING

AND

would inform the public that he will continue the Forwarding and Commission business and at lib ral rates. Oet 4, 1866.

Come and See!!

Groceries and Provisions, SUGAR CURED AND PLAIN HAMS,

SHOULDERS AND SIDES. DRIED BEEF, BOLOGNAS, &C. ALESHIRE'S BUILDING,

D. S. FORD.

LAKOITAK TESIT BANK

AND

UNITED STATES

EDWARD DELETOMBE, | ROBERT BLACK, REUDEN ALESHIRE, L. PERRY, D. S. C. BAILEY. I. R. CALOHAN, and Government securities of all kinds. Bank open from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.

BAILEY & CHERINGTO

Coal! Coal!

will keep constantly on hand, the be Kanawha and Ohio river Coal Co's coar and nut coal; also, No. 1 Syracuse, Pomers and Pittsburgh coal, which I will d liver lowest eash prices. Orders filled wit promptness. Persons buying from me es depend on getting the article they pay for, as full weight. JOHN FULTZ June 20, '67.

Logwood, Madder,

der, Indigo, Cudbear, Blu Blue Vitriol.

HENRY HOUSE, BOOK AGENT,

CINCINATI Dailies, Weekly and Monthly Periodicals, School Books, Stationery and Notions. SECOND STREET, ABOVE STATE.

GALLIPOLIS OHIO. Dec. 14; 1865,

HENKING, ALLEMONG & CO. (SUCCESSORS TO) C. & A. HENKING. GROCERS AND PROVISIONS. COMMISSION MERCHANTS, Aleshire's Block, Dealers in Produce, Provisions and Liquore, Lower side Public Square, Gallipo COURT ST., BET. 20 and 30 ST'S.

Choice and Extra

IN 14: 14 and 14 Bbl Sacks, by WHOLE-SALE for GROCERS AND PRODUCE DEALERS OF RETAIL for FAMILY USE, at R. ALESHIRE & Co's.,

CITY GROCERY.

WHOLESALE and retail dealer in GROCERIES

-AND-

GALLIPOLIS OHIO. WHERE he will be pleased to see all the old and as many new customers as may call.
He has now in store a full stock of Groeeries and goods in his line, to which he invites the THANKPUL for past patronage in the Dental Profession, for the past fourteen years in Gallipolis, takes pleasure in Inform COMMISSION MERCHANT, vers in Gallipolis, takes ideasure in informing his numerous friends and patrons that he has secured the latest and improved appliances for extracting Teeth without the slightest pain.

All kinds of Dentistry executed on the > Medical Notice. JOHN MORGAN, M. D., tenders his pro-fessional services to the people of Galli-polis and vicinity, hoping by faithful atten-tion to business, to merit a share of this pat-

OFFICE-2d street, above Vanden's new building, back room, entrance door on uppe Aug. 9, 1866.--tf.

HAVING permanently located at Galli-polis, with a purpose to practice the profession of DENTAL SURGERY, in all its branches, I would therefore respectfully so-licit, and by careful treatment of those who may call on me, I hope to receive a liberal patronage of the citizens of Gallipolis and

Authorized Claim Agency. LEWIS NEWSOM,

Continues to prosecute all descriptions of claims for pensions, back pay and bounty due to heirs of deceased soldiers. Claims for all descriptions of Quartermaster and Commis-sary stores taken, and used by the army of the United States, whether received sary stores taken, and used by the army of the United States, whether rec-ipts were given or not. Claims when withheld from sol diers on being discharged, for back pay or bounty, for all claims for naval services and prize money, and all other claims growing out of the military in any of the wars in which the United States has been engaged.

LEWIS NEWSOM,

Wanted!

FOR which we will pay the highest market prices-delivered at our Mill or Ware-

Best Family Flour

等FURNITURE! FURNITURE! 墨

HOUSE FURNISHING

OUR Building constructed expressly for this business, is kept full of goods by receipts from almost every boat that lands at our wharf. We have the goods and will not be under-

May 30, 1867.

Lumber, Lath, Pattings, Dry Goods, MEAL AND FEED; Buffalo, West Virginia.

A LL Orders left with either member of the firm, at Gallipolis, Ohio, or at the Mill, Our country friends especially, are invited to call and see us.

A LL Orders left with either member of the firm, at Gallipolis, Ohio, or at the Mill, Our country friends especially, are invited to call and see us.

WAGONS! WAGONS!! WAGONS!!!

MEIKLE'S WAGON SHOP.

NEAR THE WOOLEN FACTORY, ALWAYS READY TO HITCH TO.

STILL ON HAND.

Miss Mary E. Bryan,

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY, STRAW

HAS Just Received a large Spring Stock goods in the above line to be found, which will be shown to callers with pleasure, and ple for the sold at extremely low prices.

All work in line, done to order prompt y, and warranted.

Agency also for the renowned Florence Sewing Machine

-AND-

Each the best of its kind in use. Instructions and information given on all points of the above Machines—which with the other merits of my Establishment, the Ladies of Gallipolis and vicinity are respectfully invited to call and test for themselves.

R. ALESHIRE & CO.

Mill-Feed, &c.

CASH FOR WHEAT! LARGEST STOCK OF GOODS

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

HARTFORD

ACCIDENT Insurance Company

Cash Capital - - - $300,000.

THOMAS J. VAIL, PRES.
C. C. KIMBALL, VICE-PRES.
W. S. MANNING, SECRETARY. INSURES AGAINST

OF ANY DESCRIPTION. With Liberal Compensation in case of S. F. NEAL, AGENT.

MILLINERY!

CREUZET'S CORNER.

New Millinery Store.

LATEST, but not LEAST!

Wishes to inform the Public that she has just returned from the City with a Large and well-selected Stock of

Straw, Silk, & Fancy Goods;

Ribbons, Laces,

and, in fact, everything pertaining to a first class Millinery Establishment.

Please give me a call, and examine for yourselves—no charge for showing goods. Kemember the place—Corner Court and Second Street. (Scatterday's old stand.)

C. WEIBERT & CO. HAVE OPENED IN-THE BUILDING

(MENAGER'S OLD STAND)

Aug. 1, 1867.--tf.

NEW FIRM!

TOSEPH EMSHEIMER, late of the Firm of Emsheimer Bros., having taken his beasts brother-in-law, MOSES SIEGEL, into partnership, the style of the new firm will be

DRY GOODS.

Votions, Hats, Boots, Shoes, etc., And is ready to sell as cheap as any House in Past experience calls me to thank the people for the liberal patronage heretofore ex-tended to me; hoping that I may still find termined to explore. Collecting the same liberal paironage bestowed upon the New Firm. Call and see for yourselves. EMSHEIMER & SIEGEL. Gallipolis, Sept. 5, '67.

To Wholesale Buyers!

Fall Trade, 1867!!

Court Street,

Flour, Wheat, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO, are now receiving the ever offered in this Market!

A Stock that Commends itself to the Fa vorable Consideration of EVERY MERCHANT BUYER in this section of country.

AT A FAVORABLE TIME:

Jobbing Trade, as LOW as can be bought any Regular Western Market.

Sept. 12, 1867. Liberal Advances MADE on Consignments of Sorghum Mo-lasses, in good cooperage. HENKING, ALLEMONG & Co.

Provisions. 5 Bbls Mess Pork.
15 Hhds Clear Hacon Sides.
3 " Bacon hams and Shoulders 20 Bbls Leaf Lard. Just received and for sale by HENKING, ALLEMONG & Co.

The Stammering Wife.

lass, aid never a word except "You're an 883-An ass—an ass-idious teazer!"

But when we were married I found to my ru The stammering lady had spoken the truth; For often in obvious dudgeon. She'd say—if I ventured to give har a jog In the way of reproof—you're a dog-dog-dog-A dog—n dog-matic curnundgeon.

And once when I said, "We can bardly afford This extravagant style with our moderate box And hinted we ought to be wiser, she looked. I assure you exceedingly blue— And fretfully cried, "You're a Jew-Jew-Jew-A very ju-dicious adviser."

Some rather unpleasant and arduous work,
I begged her to go to a neighbor.
She wanted to know why I made such a fuss,
And saucily said, "You're a cus-cus-cusYou were always ac-cus-tomed to labor!"

THE FATAL DISCOVERY.

BY EMERSON BENNETT. How did I get my first start in life? Well, in a singular manner-a very

Let me see! I am now pretty well along in years-seventy-seven last January-what some people call get ting old-but, somehow, my heart feels as young as ever. Seventyseven with nineteen off, leaves fifty. eight. Fifty eight years ago in June; that would carry it back to the year 1809. Yes that is right-that is the year I went to Port au-Prince, Hayti, as Captain's clerk. The Captain and I not agreeing very well, I lett

I am auxious to see it, but do not wish to venture alone, and so far Groceries, &c., have found no one to be my compan ion. Now, if you can spare a few

> "I'm your man," was my reply. which we proposed to eke out with fresh game-and the second day saw us on our travels into an uninhabited region. I pass over the first few days of romantic exploration, during which we penetrated deep forests and dense Prince's Metallic Paint NEW GOODS! jungles, where vegetation ran riot, forded numerous streams, descended into dark valleys, and saw nature in all her wildness, grandeur and beauty,

> On the fifth or six day we discovered the finest scene of all-a suc-EMSHEIMER & SIEGEL. cession of precipices, like so many HE calls the attention of all his friends and customers, and the public gene rally, to the fact that he has returned from the CITIES, where he has replenished his three sides of the whole, and a flowery valley on the fourth, altogether a combination of grandenr, heauty and sublimity that was really enchant-CLOTHING, ing. We spent the remainder of the day here, built our camp fire on one of the highest ledges and slept soundsongsters and the falling waters. On the following day we discov-

After getting in some fifty feet, in upon a large apartment, hung with the most beautiful stalactites, which HALLIDAY & MILES, the most beautiful statacties, which an effect that beggars description, and we could easily fancy that we were in a palace of diamonds. "This is worth a lifetime of labor to behold!" exclaimed my companion enthusiastically. dreams!" I returned.

with an even, level floor. going straight forward, and the othand began to descend somewhat ab- tale of the loss of my companion .-

so many wide.

tle uneasy for fear we might venture within. I named a sum equivalent mission." too far, lose our way, and not be able to five thousand dollars; and, after

"I know every turn, and could find the sparklets of gold and received my way out in the dark."

where the passage was so contracted tune by his purchase. that at first we were compelled to our hands and knees.

panion did not heed me. some distance, and then the passage States in a vessel freighted by myenlarged and led up a steep ascent. self. After toiling up about fifty feet we I was prosperous in all my undercame to another brilliant chamber of takings, and twenty years ago retired stalactites, and saw a dozen more in from business, having what I considviting passages-leading the Lord ered enough of this world's goods. only knows where! Our first torch others which I carried I remarked: and begins tew root airly. "It would be tempting fate for us to go any further now, and I am for the allspice ov the world."

hear running water, and I must see thru a half inch auger hole, and sing a distance of five miles and returned where it is. This way, follow me - Home! sweet home!" while the mo- with help and a ludder before he

He set forward again as he spoke, this climate.

a pretty open passage, and as we ad-vanced the sound of falling water He li became more and more audible, till and haint got enny more time tew at length we came in sight of a bright spare than a schoolboy haz Saturday with the 'varmints,' and attributed running stream, that puried along afternoons. over a clear bed, and fell with a suddark abyss that was awful to behold. months during each year. this wonder of nature, with the lurid the whole ov the road. several bright sparks of fire in the boddy else bez. stream above the fall. As the depth He iz the American pet, perfeckt of water was but a few inches, I mistery tew foreigners; but haz dun up and held it to the light.

"What have you found?" asked my companion. "What is it?" I asked, handing it to him. look, as he fairly shouted: "Gold! gold! as I live! Hurrah!

Our fortune is made!" In a moment I was as much excited as he; and forgetting every thing else, we both began a hurried search along the stream for gold .--We found it in particles-here, youder, and there-sparkling like fire in hour, that at last Dick got his salt rate flag by next Thursday." procured a good outfit; rifles, knives, the flash of our torch; and while we pistols, tinder box, waltets, knap gathered it looking eagerly among bring the keen Boston lawyer under riching vein, we indulged in the wild est dreams of wealth and ambition. Time passed unheeded, our torch burned low, and yet we thought of nothing but gold: At last, coming back down the stream toward the edge of the dark abyss, my companion saw something that drew him forward in haste.

saw his danger and shouted: "Have a care!" The words had not done echoing through the subterranean gloom when there was a sudden slip, the pitching forward of a human body, an agonizing yell, the ghastly flare of a terraces one above the other, down was all alone in the bowels of the swiftly descending torch, and then I earth, in the most appalling dark-

Men have lived through such terrors, and by the mercy of God I am Barton. still alive, but how I kept my senses and found my way back to the world of light and life, is a mystery to me. The horror and despair that followed the loss of my companion no lanly to the music of the many night guage can portray. For a long time was bewildered and stupefied, and I sat down there in the rayless darkered the entrance to a beautiful ness, moaning and wringing my hands. Then I shouted his name many times, and begged him to answer me, though I knew it was all in vain. Echo alone responded-an ing fire, and one bundle of the sticks was still in my possession. I lighted the last torch, cast around a zigzag course, we suddenly came me cae terrified glance, and hurried away from the roaring water that was singing the funeral dirge of my > late companion. My presence here now is proof but more than once I was in despair, believing that I had lost my way .-After that I had a long, weary journey back to Port-au Prince, and it was not until near the close of the ing that time, and after being completely drenched, I was often ex-business. THE GOODS WERE BOUGHT and left. We took the middle one, ty low I bethought me of my golden which was about ten feet high, and cave and at once endeavored to turn it to account. I mentioned my dis-After advancing a few paces we covery to several different parties. AND, ARE NOW OFFERED TO THE found that it gradually narrowed, telling them at the same time the sad ruptly, the air becoming damp and Most of them listened with indiffer-my reward. I never saw him after-Soon after this we came to a place ward but heard that he made a for-That four thousand dollars so stoop and then to crawl forward on strangely acquired, I may say, was my first start in life. With that I Again I remonstrated, but my com- began to trade ic different articles, buying and selling, and two years We kept on in this manner for afterward returned to the United was by this time pretty well burned out, and as I lighted one of the two like a little pig, he is weaned young

He is the pepper sass of creation-"Hark!" he said. "I do believe I molassiss in the month of January. There is no danger-I will guide you lassis iz running, may be strictly hon- could be released from his perilous torch lighting up the scene, I sud- He trots when he walks, and lies any other man in it. grease on an axletree.

fuss .- Josh Billings. and badgered him so for about an each of them must have a Confede-his batteries. "dark as ink and raining like seven bells.

Suddenly Mr. Choate asked him-

"Was there a moon that night?"

"Ah, yes! A moon-" "Yes, a full moon." "Did you see It?" "Not a mite."

"Yes, sir."

that night sir?"

a moon?

this world." "What was the principal luminary yards of each other before they knew

"Binnacle lamp aboard the Challenger." "Ab, you are growing sharp, Mr. "What in blazes have you been me dull?" "Be civil, sir. And now tell me crossed the Equator in?"

"No, sir! I am in earnest, and desire you to answer me.' "I shan't." "Ab, you refuse, do you?" "Yes-I can't.

"Sho! you're joking."

so simple a question?" ain't no latitude on the Equator." That shot floored Rufus Choate. Later intelligence has been pose, depositing supplies of provisions at easy stages along the proposfourth day that I came in sight of ed route. From some hostile Esthe town. It rained a good deal dur. quimaux he learned that, at about careless farming, that will thrive in the time of the loss of Sir Jno. Frank lin's vessel, some white men carried posed to the rays of the scorching a dead body on shore and built a sun. The effect of this was fever, which they carefully ple's business has achieved a despemoved on, and came to where three was more than once despaired of; the vault with heavy flag stones. moved on, and came to where three was more than once despaired of; the vault with heavy flag stones.—

This body Mr. Hall believes to be every variety of difficulty, trod on dark passages led deeper into the and it was near four months from the remains of Sir John, and his in everybody's heels and patience, and bowels of the earth; the central one my first attack, before I was fit for the remains of Sir John, and his intention is to visit the locality and satisfy himself upon the point, if possible. He has secured many

Sir John's party. An anecdote is told of a clergyman who gave notice one Sunday, Young America got lost at a county from his pulpit that he expected to fair in New Jersey, and went bawling ruptly, the air becoming damp and heavy. Presently it expanded into a long, low hall of solid rock, which like the first apartment, was black and gloomy, affording the wildest contrast.

On exploring this apartment we found no less than six more passages, leading off in as many directions.—

We selected the largest and still went.

Most of them listened with indifference, saying they did not think gold conough could be found there to defray the expense of searching for it; and I was about to give up the idea of making money of it when I formulated the some quiet people, who inquired the ease of his grief. He answered with a speculating Frenchman, who asked me for what sum would I guide him the expected to fair in New Jersey, and went bawling around, much to the annovance of week, on a mission among the heathers. After the service his parishion ers came to him, and said: "Why, my dear sir, you have never hinted a word of this to us before. Pray what are we to do during your able me for what sum would I guide him the expected to found there to defray the expense of searching for it; and I was about to give up the idea of the course of the following around, much to the annovance of week, on a mission among the heathers. After the service his parishion ers came to him, and said: "Why, my dear sir, you have never hinted a word of this to us before. Pray what are we to do during your able me, and relinquish all the minister. "O, my brethren," replied the minister. We selected the largest and still went to the cavern, and relinquish all the minister, "be not troubled; I forward, though I began to feel a lit- claim to whatever might be found don't expect to leave town on my valuable articles formerly owned by Number 1.

A Tough Story. A Western paper tells the following rather tough story. If true, it is the most remarkable on record:

An accident of a remarkable na-ture occurred in the woods of a neighboring county last week, by which a man was thrown eighty feet into the air. He was standing on a balance tree laying across a large log, to see another tree come down, when the tree in its falling course struck the other end of the tree, on which he was standing, and the tremendous weight of it coming on the spring lever-threw him like a shot into the sir. The remarkable part of the story remains to be told. When at his highest elevation the man eaught hold of the top of a tree about fifteen position. He was found in the same and as he carried the light I was The Live Man iz as full of bizzi- the best of spirits, for he was whistobliged to accompany him or remain ness as the conductor of a street ling 'Yankee Doodle,' and making a kar-he is often like a hornet, very strong fight against a strong delega-We thus went on and on, through bizzy, but about what the Lord only tion of wasps that were endeavoring He lights up like a cotton faktory, pants. He said, upon reaching the his powers of endurance wholly to He iz like a decoy duck, always the hotly contested canvass with the den plunge and gloomy roar, into a abuv water, and lives at least 18 critters' by their persistent fire in

> If that man ever gets into office he will be provided for for the rest of fixed my eye on one, descended into more (with charcoal) tew work out yesterday says that "at the celebra-The Lexington Statesman of week at Georgetown, Kentucky, the that place who participated on the so, was threatened with punishment for her refusal. We are glad to know Rufus Choate, in an important as badge from her arm, where it had sault and battery at sea case, had been forcibly placed, and threw it in Dick Barton, chief mate of the clip | the fire. We are further informed per-ship Challenger, on the stand, that the ladies were instructed that two trains were within about eighty it .-- Ironton Journal. How DID HE GET THERE?-In digging a well upon his property some hree miles west of this city, a few days since, Mr. G. M. Codding found grinding me this hour for-to make a toad imbedded in the earth at a depth of 22 feet from the surface .--The toad was in a dormant condition what latitude and longitude you when found, but after being exposed to the air a few moments, began to wink and show other signs of life, and finally in a short time, hopped off as though he had always been used to it. How and when did said > forty years. There is no illegal farming, no illegitimate farming, no

New England .- Dr. G. B. Loring. The man who tried to make a a great many hours every day, under thoroughly tried the whole system. He is firmly of the opinion that a man can do better in attending to his own single business than by combin-

A precocious specimen of

GALLIPOLIS. Designated Depository vicinity, knowing from past experience that PRINANCIAL ACENT. OF THE EDWARD DELETOMBE L. PERRY. VICE PRESIDENT GEO. W. JACKSON. Capital Stock, $100,000 DIRECTORS:-Buys Gold, Silver, U. S. Bonds, Coup HENRING'S BUILDING, UP STAIRS. GEO. W. JACKSON, Cash

LIVERY AND SALE STABLE SECOND STREET ABOVE STATI GALLIPOLIS OHIO.

Dyes! Dyes!

Alum, &c For sale a! Sanns' Drug Store.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

Having purchased of Messrs. Patten & Sherwood, the Wharf Boats at Gallipolis, O., would inform the public that he will consider the personal to the Power of the Power o

DENTISTRY

allipolis, Unio.

Linseed Oil. Spirits Turpentine, Benzine. Varnish,

D. S. FORD. SUCCESSOR TO

PAINTS! PAINTS White Lead,

Sept 5, 1867 .- 1y.

Paint Brushes, Window Glass, &c., &c., For sale at Sanna' Drug Store & pril 12, '66-tf.

D. S. Ford & Bro. DEALER IN GROCERIES and

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

EUREKA MILLS, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

JOSEPH MORRISON. (SUCCESSOR TO) MORRISON & DALE.

Oct 11, 1866.—tf

WHEAT, CORY AND OATS:

For Sale at our Mill. H. H. & E. H. NEAL. June 6, '67.-tf.

GOODS! In large quantities; better assortment and at as Low on Lower Prices than ean be found elsewhere. May always be found at Hayward & Fuller's Extensive Ware-rooms.

sold. Do not be persuaded to purchase with-out examining our stock. Corner of Third and State Streets. HAYWARD & FULLER. Fenner & Morgan, Latest! but not Least.

AND FANCY GOODS Ribbons and Laces. SECOND ST., ABOVE SHERMAN HOUSE, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

LAMB KNITTING MACHINE

DEALERS IN

EUREKA MILLS. May 9, 1867.-tf.

Of Hartford, Conn.

Death by Accidents

BY JOHN G. SAXE. When deeply in love with Miss Emily Pyrne, rowed if the lady would only be mine. I would always cadeavor to please her, the blushed her consent, though the stuttering

Miss L. HILL,

again, when it happened that wishing to shir some rather unpleasant and arduous work, BONNETS, HATS

Out of temper at last with the insolent dame, And feeling the woman was greatly to blame,
To scold me instead of caressing,
I minmicked her speech—like a churl as I amAnd angrily said, "you're a dam-dam-dam-dam-age instead of a blessing." FEATHERS, PLOWERS, ORNAMENTS singular manner indeed. I will tell NEW STORE him there, and while looking for an-Corner 2d and Court St's. other birth, I fell in with a countryman of mine, who wanted to make a trip into the interior, merely to grat-A Large and Complete Stock "I have heard," he said, "that the scenery back here among the hills is the most beautiful in the world, and

We immediately set to work and with just enough peril from wild beasts to keep us keenly on the some resinous sticks, and binding them together to serve for torches, we lighted one bunch and entered awful echo-that finally died out far where (perhaps) the foot of man had away in the terrific darkness. never trod. The entrance was narrow, a little higher than our heads, and my companion went cautiously forward with a light, and I cautiously followed.

"Gorgeous- far beyond my wildest This hall was very large, not less than three hundred feet in length, by two hundred in breadth, and in some places perhaps fifty feet to the roof, rounding beauties, we gradually weeks, during which time my life ed the corpse, afterward covering

est, but he aint sudden enough for

As we stopped and contemplated He iz like a runaway hoss, he gets citement incident thereto. the rear,' and the tremendous exdealy perceived what appeared to be down at night only bekause every- his natural life. He will know how to hang on to it.

the current, stooped down, picked it the greatness ov this country than tion of Democratic victories last He iz jest az necessary az the young ladies of a female school at He don't alwas die ritch, but alwas occasion, were required to wear a dies bizzy, and meets death a good red white and red badge on their Never shall I forget his wild, eager deal as an oyster duz, without any arm, and one lady who refused to do A LAWYER OUT OF HIS RECKONING .- that she resisted, and finally tore the > ACCIDENT ON THE IRON RAILROAD .--About 8 o'clock last Friday morning, At the beginning of his testimony bick had said that the night was to a construction train, ran into the coal train near Vesuvius Station, and was completely demolished. Only two persons were on board at the time--the engineer, Mr. Beaman, and Samuel Richards, Secretary of the road. Mr. Beaman was slightly injured in the head and one leg, and Mr. Richards was very severely bruised in the head, shoulder and "Then how do you know there was both legs. The Etna had just put off a lot of repair hands, and was "Nautical almanae said so, and I'll running at full speed-meeting the believe that sooner'n any lawyer in coal train on a short curve-the tond get so deep into the earth, and how was life sustained during his "Indeed! You are chief mate of a long term of imprisonment? Who can tell? .- Akron Beacon. clipper ship, and unable to answer At last I aroused myself to my own preservation. Fortunately I had ever had asked me. Why, I thought He has applied to it all the accurate knowledge that he could get. There is no month in the year that something does not bloom on his farm, there is something green there always; and he always has some crop received at St. John's, Newfound- to send to market. You walk land, from Capt. Hall, who is search. through it and find everything going ing the Arctic regions for traces of on just as regularly, accurately and that I reached the outer world alive; Sir John Franklin's expedition. He carefully as the cotton goes through had determined upon prosecuting his the loom. He has managed his afenterprise the coming winter, and made every arrangement for the pur care, and has made from his farm of twenty acres $250,000 in > ing scores of other people's. We shouldn't wonder.

subject for pumping. A newspaper man from Texas called upon him to far, lose our way, and not be able to get back.

"Don't let us venture too far for the first time," I said to my friend by way of courtesy; "for I have no desire to be buried alive."

"Not the least danger," he replied,